WHO standards on child growth

897. SHRI VIJAY J. DARDA:
SHRI GIREESH KUMAR SANGHI:

Will the Minister of WOMEN AND CHILD DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government have adopted the new WHO standards on child growth, that may help improve our poor rating on the global child nourishment index;

(b) if so, whether cases of malnutrition of children in Vidarbha region and the judgement of Bombay High Court in this matter have been taken into account;

(c) whether Government have seen the survey conducted by the Right to Food campaign, which was conducted in six States; and

(d) if so, what are their views on the observation made therein?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF WOMEN AND CHILD DEVELOPMENT (SHRIMATI RENUKA CHOWDHURY): (a) and (b) The Ministry of Women and Child Development has taken a decision to adopt the new WHO Child Growth Standards in Integrated Child Development Services which may marginally improve our poor rating on global child nutrition scenario. The new WHO-Child Growth Standards are based on a multi-centric study carried out in six countries including India. These are scientific, gender specific and for the first time describe,
